

Dated : 19-Nov-2019

Mock Drill organized in VSP

Visakhapatnam Steel Plant today conducted the Emergency mock-drill at Air Separation Unit 5 of its Utilities Department. During the mock drill, a scenario of the Cryogenic liquid nitrogen leak was assumed and the entire machinery/equipment to arrest the same and to rescue the injured persons was pressed to action.

PhotoCaption:

The On Site emergency management team comprising of Incident controller, Site Controller, Chief Emergency Coordinator, Safety Officer, Fire and Security Officer, First Aid/Ambulance, Gas Safety, Environment, HR officer and Rescue members exhibited a synchronized display of efforts to contain the same with the help of safety equipments and fire fighting systems of the plant. Sri J Shiva Shankar Reddy, Joint Chief Inspector of Factories and Sri KBS Prasad Dy. Chief Inspector of Factories witnessed the mock drill and appreciated VSP for the best efforts in conducting the mock drill and suggested valuable inputs for the betterment. Sri K V Vidya Sagar , ED(Works) I/c applauded the efforts of all the members participated in the Mock Drill. Sri Irfan Ahammed Commandant/ CISF, Sri V Ramanujam, ED(Energy & Utilities), Sri P Balachandar Rao, Chief General Manager (Safety & Environment), and other officials of Visakhapatnam Steel Plant were also present during the mock drill.

PhotoCaption:

Corporate Communications Dept.
RINL - VSP.